

Help Menu

In this menu, the user has access to different sources of information about SimLab Composer.

News

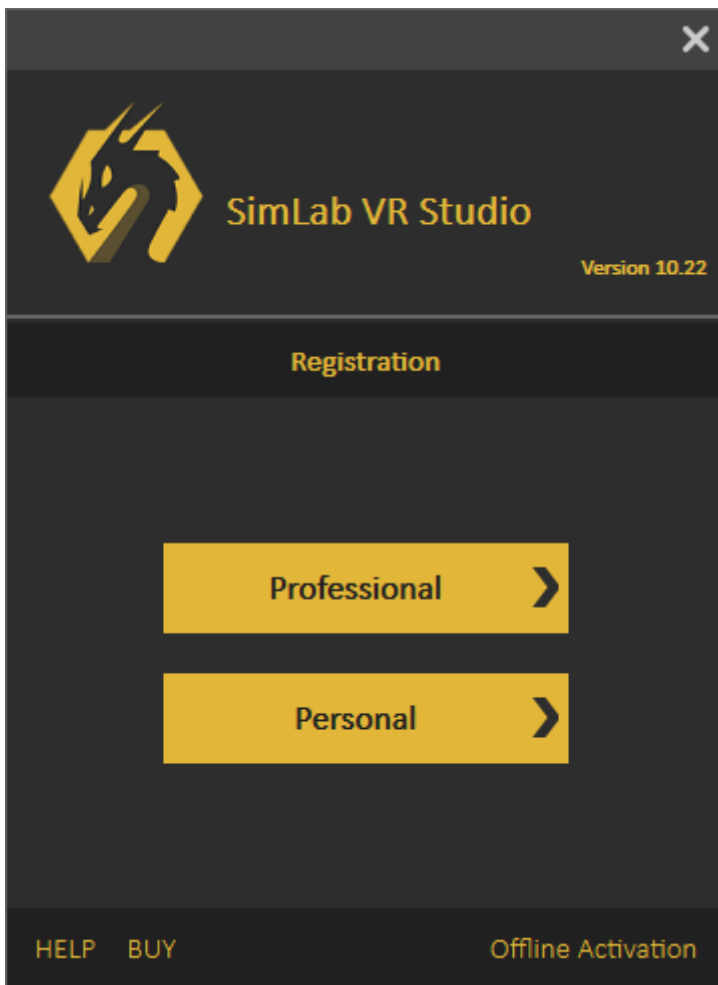

Starting with News where a dialog will be displayed including the latest news regarding the application, and its updates.

Check for Updates

Check for Updates, as the name implies, will display the dialog with the latest releases of the application.

License

License displays the Registration dialog, where the user can request start free personal license, request a trial license, or activate a professional license. More information about the Composer licensing process can be found here

Cloud License

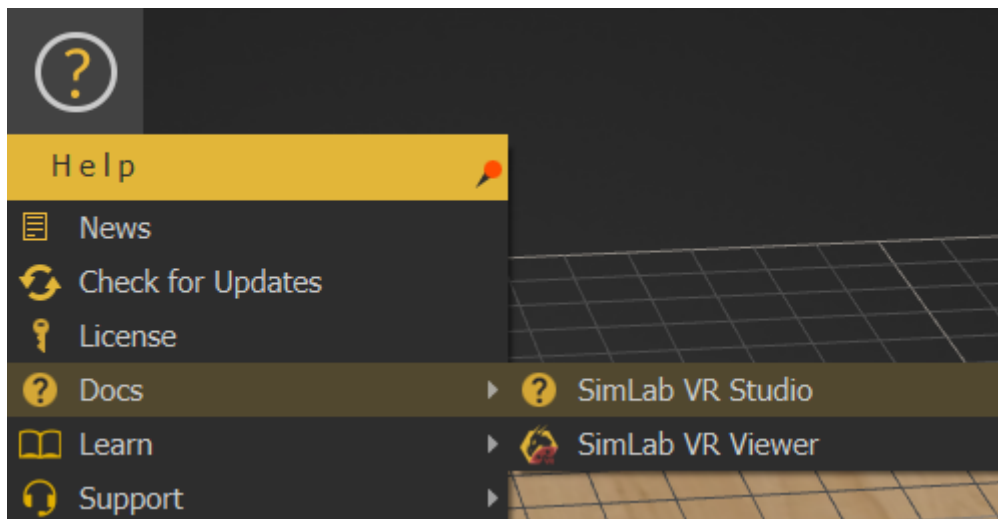

Cloud license option allows the user to do the following:

- View current cloud account status
 - Number of models uploaded
 - Used Cloud Space
 - Number of paired devices
- Add additional cloud keys to increase cloud account capacity or to extend its period.

Note: Professional software key received when ordering a license of Composer is also a valid Cloud Key, so the user can use it to activate the Cloud Account. All the user needs to do is register a Cloud account and then add the key.

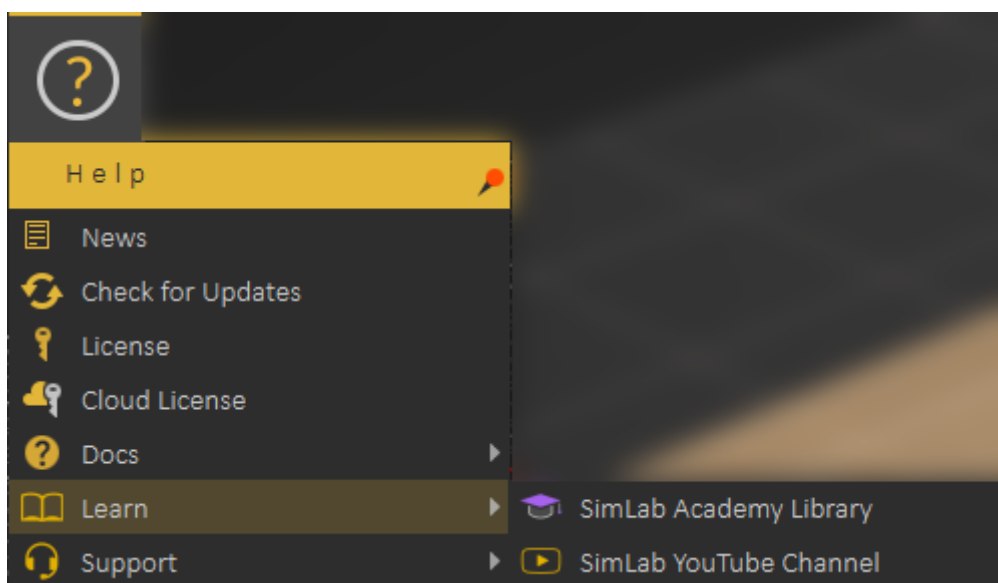

Docs

This option provides users with a list of helpful links available for SimLab Composer. Including a link to this help document, and a link for more information about SimLab VR Viewer.

Learn

Learn option directs users to learning resources for SimLab Composer.

SimLab Academy displays SimLab Academy in the SimLab Composer library, More information about SimLab Academy can be found here.

SimLab YouTube Channel directs the user to the corresponding site.

Support

The support menu allows the user to do the following:

- Report an issue
- Provide a Suggestion
- Get access to SimLab Community Forum
- View Blog

Revision #3

Created 4 September 2022 07:01:45 by Ashraf Sultan

Updated 21 December 2023 13:51:46 by Jamal